

TIMBER-R-R-R . . . Firemen were able to escape without harm when this huge wooden oil derick near Pennsylvania and 236th St. toppled during the height of a three-hour blaze Tuesday afternoon. The derick was completely demolished.

Former Army Evangelist To Talk Here

Robert C. Christophulos, founder of the Fort Ord North Chapel Sunday School and of the "Sky Pilot" Club in Korea, will lead evangelistic meetings this week at the Calvary Community Church, Milion St. and Elliott Ave.

Meetings will start at 11 a. m. today and will be held each evening during the week, except Saturday, at 7:30 p. m.

Christophulos served with the Seventh Infantry Division and was stationed in Korea for 14 months as a Master Sergeant.

While there, he led 100 Korean boys to join the "Sky Pilot" Club and gave instruction to eager children through barbed wire surrounding the American compound at Chunchon.

Sgt. Chris, as he was known there, was instrumental in building four new Korean churches and a Sunday School and in

Spiritual Understanding Claimed Hope of Universe

Spiritual understanding alone can heal today's widespread distrust and discord and assure universal freedom and security, the Christian Science Board of Directors said Monday in a special statement.

About 7500 Christian Scientists from many parts of the world heard the director's message at the Annual meeting of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Stressing the universal nature of spiritual understanding, the directors said that the healing promises of practical Christianity apply "to every human being and every group and nation."

"When we look at the world and its problems, we cannot fail to be grateful that the teaching of Christ Jesus has so broadly and deeply registered in it," the directors said. This teaching, they declared, offers a lasting solution to confusion in government, conflicting national interests, and world tension.
